

WU Stands Against Gender-Based Violence 2022

Unheard voices: Discussing mothers' invisible experiences of violence and inequality in Austria

Nov. 28, 2022, 4:00pm, Vienna

Venue: Campus WU

Welthandelsplatz 1, 1020 Vienna

Library & Learning Center (LC), Festsaal 2

REGISTRATION: margit.feibel@wu.ac.at

PANELISTS

Bianca Uzun, BSc is a health care and nursing practitioner, as well as an expert lactation consultant. She works at the biggest maternity ward in Vienna, and she is also the co-founder of the FB group Moms (ATW) & Kids in Austria.

Dr. Yuki Seidler is a public health and migration health researcher. She has authored and co-authored different research publications covering various topics, including Postnatal Acculturative Stress (PAS). More specifically, she has analyzed immigrant mothers' acculturation behaviors or cultural orientations, and their maternal psychological health in Austria.

Dr. Katharina Mader is an economist at the Women and Family Department of the Chamber of Labour. She is also a researcher at the Institute for Heterodox Economics at the Vienna University of Economics and Business. Her research focuses on feminist economics, care economy and unpaid work as well as gender budgeting and gender-responsive economic policy.

We will provide professional childcare for a limited number of kids and in a different room, in case parents want to bring their children to the event. While registering, please inform us about the number of kids you will come with and their age!

